

Gianni & Origoni strengthens its Financial Markets department

Edoardo Brillante returns to the firm as Counsel

Milan, December 2, 2024 - International law firm Gianni & Origoni announces the hire of Edoardo Brillante who will join the Financial Markets department as Counsel. Edoardo is an expert in financial services and banking regulation, investment solicitation transactions, and the regulation of listed issuers.

Edoardo previously worked at Gianni & Origoni's Milan office from 2014 to 2021. In the last three years, he further consolidated his expertise at PedersoliGattai. Throughout his career, Edoardo has provided legal and regulatory advice to regulated companies, including banks, investment firms, financial intermediaries, asset managers, and insurance companies. He has supported clients in their day-to-day operations, their interactions with Supervisory Authorities, and in extraordinary transactions, M&A, private equity deals, as well as in the creation of investment structures (such as funds, investment vehicles, and club deals). Additionally, he has experience in the fintech sector and has assisted listed companies and market leaders with IPOs, capital raising, and takeover bids (OPAs).

Paolo Bordi and Emanuele Grippo, Co-heads of Gianni & Origoni's Financial Markets Department, commented: "We are thrilled to welcome Edoardo back to our firm. His experience significantly strengthens our team, enhancing our ability to support clients in navigating the increasingly complex financial regulatory landscape."
