

Gianni & Origoni strengthens its Hong Kong office

The firm reinforces its continuous commitment to the Asian Market

Hong Kong, March 27, 2025 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni is pleased to announce the appointment of Hong Kong lawyer, Eviana Leung, as Counsel in the litigation department. Eviana is also principal partner of Eviana Leung & Partners, GOP's associated firm in Hong Kong.

Having been admitted to practice as a solicitor in the High Court of Hong Kong since 2008, Eviana specialises in commercial litigation, arbitration, marine and insurance disputes. With her broad understanding of the Chinese market, she brings extensive experience supporting Mainland, foreign and local corporations, as well as private clients in areas including liquidation, re-structuring, internal, regulatory and corporate governance-related investigation, shareholder disputes, trade conflicts, recovery of high value debts, arbitration, injunction and Court and dispute resolution procedures.

Davide De Rosa, Hong Kong Resident Partner of Gianni & Origoni, commented: "I am pleased to welcome Eviana, a brilliant young professional whose experience and expertise will add value to our team and will further contribute to the success of our projects in Hong Kong and the Greater China region."

Giuseppe De Simone, Co-Managing Partner of Gianni & Origoni, added: "Our firm has always distinguished itself for its international focus, which has led it to expand over time into highly strategic markets for both our Italian and foreign clients. The strengthening of our Hong Kong office, as well as the recent appointment of Ambassador Vincenzo De Luca, are part of our international growth strategy, particularly in the Asian markets."

Since Gianni & Origoni opened its Hong Kong registered foreign law firm in 2014, it has strengthened the firm's presence in a region with a business landscape focused on investments in Italy and Europe, while it also serves as a vital hub for Italian companies looking to invest abroad.
