Gianni Origoni Grippo promotes four

Gianni Origoni Grippo & Partners (GOGP) has promoted four partners, two each at its main offices in Milan and Rome, following a partners meeting at the weekend (25 June). This year's class is one short of the five promotions made in each of the previous two years.

The promotions concern Alfredo D'Aniello and Decio Nicola Mattei in Rome, and Luca Rinaldi and Alessandro Zalonis at the Milan office (pictured).

D'Aniello, a corporate/M&A specialist, joined GOGP in 2000. He spent a period seconded to Simpson Thacher & Bartlett's New York office and has advised Italian State-owned bank Cassa Depositi e Prestiti on its acquisition of STMicroelectronics.

Litigation lawyer Mattei joined the firm 2001 and has worked on corporate, bankruptcy, banking and real estate matters.

Rinaldi is an IP lawyer specializing in media and entertainment, particularly television rights.

Zalonis becomes the second partner at GOGP's tax practice led by Luciano Acciari.

Following the promotions, the partner headcount at GOGP rises to 69.
