

Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners wins at the 2017 ILO Client Choice Awards

Partner Paola Tradati is awarded for "Employment & Benefits" in Italy

London, February 9, 2017 – International law firm Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners is delighted to announce that Partner Paola Tradati is the exclusive winner, for the third time in a row, of the 2017 International Law Office (ILO) Client Choice Awards in the "Employment & Benefits" category for Italy.

Established in 2005, the Client Choice awards recognize those partners around the world that stand apart for the excellent client service they provide. The criteria for the awards focus on the ability to add real value to clients' business above and beyond other players in the market. Uniquely, these awards survey senior corporate counsel only, with this year's winners chosen from a pool of more than 2000 individual assessments.

Clients comments include:

"Paola offers great expertise combined with experience and knowledge of business management; she is an extremely effective and reliable partner to tackle even the most complicated situations."

"She has wide experience in her field; she is able to find a smart solution to the problem with a much appreciated cost-saving approach."

"She is one of the most skilled lawyers in Italy."

"She perfectly understands the clients' needs; she is able to transpose them into solutions that meet the objectives in the best way."

Paola joined Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners in 2012, she specialises in Labour Law, focusing on collective dismissals, restructuring process, stock option plans. She deals with HR issues for domestic and foreign companies. Paola is also proficient in agency contracts and related litigation.
