

ABUSE OF DOMINANCE IN EU COMPETITION LAW: EMERGING TRENDS

Organisers: Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners and Florence Competition Programme in Law and Economics

Venue: Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners - 184 Avenue Molière, 1050, Brussels

23 NOVEMBER 2017

■ INTRODUCTION

On the occasion of the publication of its first volume on “Abuse of Dominance in EU Competition Law: Emerging Trends”, published in 2017 by Edward Elgar, the Florence Competition Programme in Law and Economics at the European University Institute is glad to invite you to a round-table aimed to discuss emerging trends identified by the authors concerning the application of abuse of dominance provisions. Some book’s contributors will present their analysis and discuss their views with the audience.

A cocktail will follow.

The event is kindly hosted by the international law firm Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners. To register, please use this link by 19 November.

■ PROGRAMME

18.00 - 18.15	Welcome Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners
18.15 - 18.30	The Florence Competition Programme in Law & Economics Pier Luigi Parcu European University Institute
18.30 - 19.00	Article 102 TFEU between new forms of abuse and private enforcement Roundtable discussion Marco Botta European University Institute Alexandre de Streel University of Namur Giorgio Monti European University Institute Pier Luigi Parcu European University Institute
19.00 - 19.15	Q & A
19.15 - 19.30	Final remarks

Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners

19.30

Cocktail