

Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners strengthens its Banking & Finance practice

Eduardo Fiordiliso rejoins GOP on departure from UniCredit bank

Milan, February 9, 2018 - The international law firm Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners announces the rehire of Eduardo Fiordiliso as a new partner in the firm's Banking & Finance department in Milan.

Eduardo began his professional career in GOP in 2003. Over the years he has honed his expertise and gained extensive experience in the Corporate & Investment Banking legal department of UniCredit Group, assisting the bank in all the principal financing transactions it has carried out in recent years.

Eduardo is an expert in banking & finance, corporate law and financial markets. He assists clients in the structuring of complex finance transactions, in particular involving LBO/acquisition financing, real estate financing, public offers, takeover bids, restructuring deals as well as advisory activity on regulatory matters related to banking law.

With Eduardo's arrival, the Banking & Finance team - headed by Matteo Bragantini and Giuseppe De Simone - now numbers 5 partners and 18 associates.

Matteo Bragantini states: "We are very pleased to have Eduardo back at the firm. His appointment as a new partner of our Banking & Finance practice follows the professional development path he started in GOP several years ago and is in line with the firm's growth policies."

Giuseppe De Simone continues: "We are positive that Eduardo will make an important contribution to the growth of GOP in such a strategic sector (Banking & Finance), making our firm even more competitive in this field."

Eduardo Fiordiliso adds: "I am both thrilled and honoured to return to Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners and to work once again with so many friends and colleagues. GOP is the ideal place to actively take part in the dynamism that is characterizing our sector."
