

De Rosa of GOP elected Vice President of the Italian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong and Macao

The GOP Partner will be vice president of the association for the two-year period 2019-2020

Rome, March 28, 2019 – International Law firm Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners' Hong Kong Partner, Davide De Rosa was elected Vice President of the Italian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong and Macao for the two-year period 2019-2020.

The appointment is a recognition of the skills and experience gained at the firm's Hong Kong office which became operational in 2014, part of the firm's strategic geographical investment (along with Shanghai in 2018), with the specific goals of servicing both Italian and international clients in an area which has proven to be a significant pull factor for foreign investments, and also tapping into the demand from growing numbers of local companies, looking with increasing interest towards investment opportunities in Europe and particularly in Italy.

The Italian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong and Macao currently comprises 355 members, representatives of the fashion, agribusiness, logistics, consulting and design sectors. The Chamber organizes over 100 events a year in support and promotion of Italian companies including major local and international seminars as well as networking events.
